The Pig & Abbot High St, Abington Pigotts, SG8 0SD

DESCRIPTION

The Pig & Abbot is a Grade II Queen Anne Listed Property of brick and tile construction with three floors of accommodation. A spacious bar with two large open fireplaces, one an inglenook, these together with exposed beams and detail provides added charm. Towards the rear is the dining room with seating for 30 covers which adds to the front bar area of 12. Beyond is the fully equipped commercial kitchen. Leading out to the rear is a covered area which gives access to the cold store and freezer room. The customer toilets are reached via the lobby from the bar area and are well presented including a disabled toilet.

Outside there is a generous open seating area and beyond this the car park.

At first and second floor levels is spacious landlord accommodation with 5 bedrooms, a laundry room, large kitchen/breakfast room and a separate front living room.

LOCATION

The delightful village of Abington Pigotts is a small but social village on the Cambridgeshire/Hertfordshire borders with the pub a central part of the village.

The rural location is to the west of the A1198 by about 3 miles [4.8km]. It lies to the north of Royston, just under a further 1.5 miles [2.25km].
